

For Riverside County Residents

HOW TO USE EBSCOHOST REMOTELY

STEP ONE

Riverside County Residents can call any Riverside County Law library for the username and password. Please have your zip code ready to share with staff

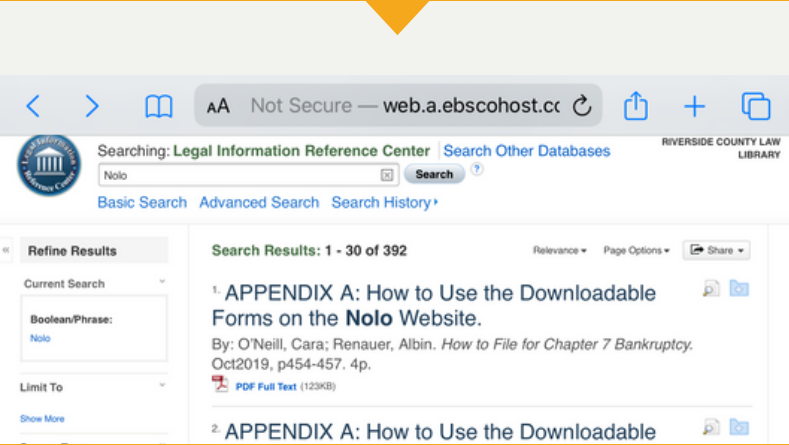

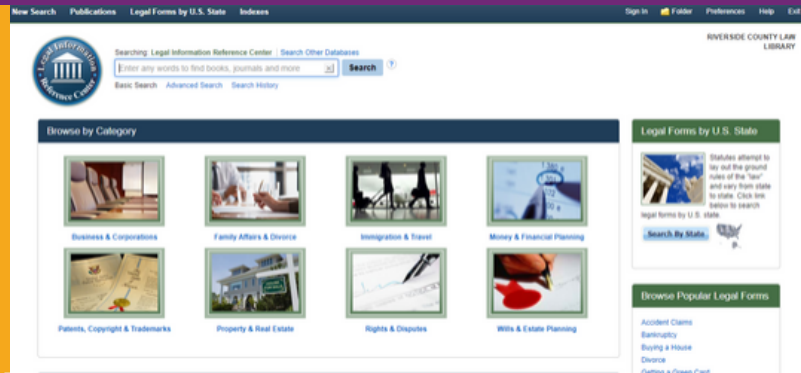

STEP TWO

Go to legal databases on RCLL's website. Scroll down to EBSCOHost icon and select "Access Remotely" link. Enter the username and password you received

USING EBSCOHOST

ENTER KEYWORD OR TERM IN THE SEARCH BAR

From the listing, click on the PDF of the publication you want to read

TYPES OF PUBLICATIONS

- *Self help and NOLO Guides
- *legal forms

BENEFITS

- *Print, email, or download the PDF
- *copy ready made citations for various style standards

QUICK FAQs

- *What are the requirements for remote access?
Be a Riverside County Resident and obtain a username and password.
- *What if I'm not a Riverside County resident?
You will need to come in to any of our three locations to use the computers to access EBSCOHost

- *What is EBSCOHost?
A reference resource. Our subscription includes digital versions of NOLO Press and forms on a wide range of legal topics.

Visit www.rclawlibrary.org for a variety of databases