Resource Spotlight

Nolo: Every Dog's Legal Guide A Must-Have Book for Your Owner by Mary Randolph, J.D.

Nolo provides a go-to legal guide for non-lawyers who are seeking where to start. This legal resource provides information and forms for dog owners. A few topics this legal guide overviews are state and local regulations, buying and selling dogs, providing pets, etc. Mary Randolph, J.D. states this book answers many questions or shows how to find answers quickly and easily as possible. Although most 'dog laws' are governed by local cities or counties, they vary every time. Each chapter ends with legal citations, important statutes, court decisions, and articles patrons can investigate to further their research. In addition to local dog laws, public or law libraries provide city or county ordinances, which are often called "Municipal Code".
