"Legal Research for Everyone": Free Video Course for the Public

Do you feel lost when you enter a law library? You're not alone. Legal Research is a skill developed over time in law school or other classes and demands practice and patience to master.

To help our patrons learn to use our legal resources more effectively, the Riverside County Law Library is producing a basic legal research class about print and electronic materials. The course is available in a series of short videos posted to the Library's YouTube channel.

Resource Spotlight

Drafting Business Contracts: Principles, Techniques, & Forms

This month's resource spotlight "Drafting Business Contracts: Principles, Techniques, & Forms" discusses and guides readers to learn about forms, sample provisions, discussion of ethics and more. Each chapter provides valuable general information, addressing legal and factual issues, and analyzing the common incorporated provisions. This book provides examples to accurately define, help strength the relationship between clients and business owners, and expectations to "minimize later disputes and preserve legal rights." This title is available in print at our library locations: Riverside and Indio.

Indio in-person 9am-4pm Monday-Friday
Temecula in-person 10am-4pm Tuesday-Thursday
