"Legal Research for Everyone": Free Video Course for the Public

Do you feel lost when you enter a law library? You're not alone. Legal Research is a skill developed over time in law school or other classes and demands practice and patience to master.

To help our patrons learn to use our legal resources more effectively, the Riverside County Law Library is producing a basic legal research class about print and electronic materials. The course is available in a series of short videos posted to the Library's YouTube channel.

Drafting Business Contracts: Principles, Techniques, & Forms

This book lays out issues and provides guidance for resolving common disputes between owners and occupants of neighboring land. It includes checklists, tips, and forms to aid in preparing a complaint or response; conducting client interviews; and dealing with emotional parties. It addresses causes of action, remedies, recouping fees, and available defenses. This title is available in print at our library locations in Riverside, Temecula, and Indio. It is also available online through our CEB OnLaw account.

Hours of Operation:
Riverside phone or email 9am-4pm Monday-Friday
Indio in-person 9am-4pm Monday-Friday
Temecula in-person 10am-4pm Tuesday-Thursday
